Dear Providers,

Happy 4th of July! We hope everyone has a safe and nutritious holiday. This month we have 3 frequently asked questions:

1) Kidkare is asking that we check kids in when we claim now. Why the change?

Federal law requires that claim data and attendance data be separate. Minute Menu has been updating our scan forms to meet this requirement and now they are updating Kidkare as well. Don't worry though as of right now we do not use any attendance data when processing your claim. If an edit check of that data becomes a requirement we will let you know.

2) A previously withdrawn kid has come back. How do I reactivate them?

In order to reactivate a child you need to go to Home, then My kids then in the withdrawn section select the profile of the child you want to reactivate then click the enrollment form link to reprint the enrollment form and get a new signature and date. You can download and print the enrollment form by clicking the Enrollment Form link under the profile picture. Once we have that form in the office we can reactivate the child for you. If you claim on paper forms fill out another enrollment and send it in. Please write Reactivate at the top.

What if you don't see the withdrawn section? Easy you can select what you see in My Kids by clicking the orange gear at the top right-hand corner.

3) How does the food program funding work and when will I get my payment?

When you submit your claim at the beginning of each month we collect all the paper and internet claims and process that data. Processing the entire claim takes about 2 weeks and once we have everything entered we send it to the state for approval. That takes another week and then we get funded. Once we are 100% sure we have the money in our bank account to cover every check and direct deposit we release the funds. Checks are then mailed and direct deposits are sent to the bank for approval and release. Money usually goes out the last full week of the month. 700006
